

AFFIDAVIT

State of Florida
County of Orange

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared [REDACTED], who after being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the natural mother of [REDACTED], born June 22, 1954 and died September 1, 2001, in Orange County, Florida.

2. My son, [REDACTED], then aged twenty-one, was being held in the jail located at Orange Ave and Central in Orlando in 1976 as the result of a child molestation, [REDACTED] charge which was made against him by an Orlando policeman and which involved the policeman's son.

3. [REDACTED] was a very gregarious, admitted homosexual who knew the child and the policeman, but denied any improper contact with him.

4. While in jail on the molestation charge, the police began to pressure [REDACTED] to tell them what he knew about the murder of Marion Foglesong, who had been raped and murdered in August of 1975.

5. [REDACTED] denied that he had any knowledge of the murder, and in January or February of 1976 he was told that all charges against him in the child molestation case would be dropped if he would testify in court that he was the homosexual lover of Tommy Zeigler.

6. [REDACTED] was threatened with being charged with the murder of Marion Foglesong if he did not agree to testify in the Zeigler case.

7. [REDACTED] refused to testify in the Zeigler case because he did not know Mr. Zeigler and had no knowledge of him whatsoever.

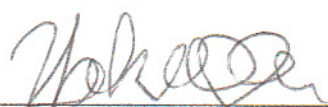

8. [REDACTED] was subsequently convicted of the child molestation charge and was charged with the murder of Ms. Foglesong.

9. [REDACTED] went to trial for the murder of Marion Folglesong in April 1979.

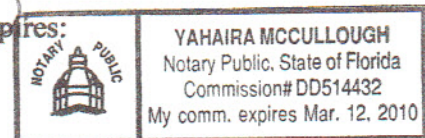

10. [REDACTED] was [REDACTED]'s public defender in the murder trial.
 11. He was acquitted after a jury deliberation lasting approximately 45 minutes.
 12. I am advised that [REDACTED] is now an assistant state attorney in Seminole county.
 13. [REDACTED] was released from prison on the child molestation conviction in the spring on 1980.
- Further affiant sayeth not.
